

1. Develop a Lexical Analyzer Program using C++ that will take an expression as input and the program will return the tokenized output to the user. If operator is not present between two operands, then the program will generate an error.

Input Expression : a = b+c*10

Tokenized Output : (id1) (=) (id2) (+) (id3) (*) (10)